Pawtucket, R. I.—Joseph Assun-cao of Valley Falls, one of a group of strikers, was killed Tuesday when police discharged riot guns after a mob refused to disperse.
Two others were seriously wounded.
Mayor Kenyon, in command of the police, had read the riot act to the mob. The shooting occurred near the Jencks spinning company's plant, where there is a strike.

CAVALRY ON GUARD
FOLLOWING MILLS SEIZURE Providence, R. I.—Two troops of state cavalry Tuesday patrolled the mill village of Pawtucket, 10 miles south of here, where striking cotton operatives Monday destroyed mill and offices of the B. B. and R.
Knight company. The cavalry dispatched Monday night, by order of
Gov. Sun South, was augmented Tuesday by a detachment with machine guns. Four coast artillery companies slept last night in the armoried here, and may be sent to the scene.

Communication cut off from telephone communication when strike synachized severed the wires, was quiet all night, according to reports. On Tuesday, Mayor S. A. Hall, commanding the cavalry, was prepared to send detachments to Natick, a village about eight miles from here, in anticipation of a recurrence of disturbances there.

The eight company coast artillery corps spent the night in the state armory at Pawtucket. Two demonstrations occurred Monday at the plant of the Jencks Spinning company in Pawtucket. Four arrests were made.
The troops dispatched to Pawtucket were, according to the Knight mills, the office of which was wrecked by a mob last night. The troops were ordered to take a detail to see that the streets were kept cleared.
Gov. Sun South, in a proclamation to the residents of Providence and Kent counties, directed all persons to observe strict order and to refrain from any acts of violence or disturbances.

Mayor Robert A. Kenyon of Pawtucket warned labor leaders not to parade without permission of the police.

POLICE ATTACK MOB
WHICH ASSAULTS GIRLS
Pawtucket.—The Jencks company has been operating its mills with partial success. A disturbance there Tuesday night, when a mob of crowd which had assaulted four young women operatives.
The crowd that gathered at the opening hour Tuesday numbered hundreds.

Although national guardsmen had been held at their armory over night, they were not called and the police were in charge of the patrol duty.
Mayor Kenyon took charge of the situation himself.
The crowd was ordered to break up and move on. When they failed to do so, the mayor read the riot act. The mob held its ground and the order was given for the police to fire. The riot guns were discharged and, in the spray of shots, Assuncao and four others were struck. Two of the wounded were said to be seriously hurt and they were taken to a hospital.

BIG JOB FOR ONE
TO EAT THE GIANT
TEXAS GRAPEFRUIT
Think of sitting down to breakfast with a grapefruit 174 inches in circumference and weighing 2-3 1/2 pounds. This grapefruit would rate two cherries and a "fairly good" spoonful of this weight and size was shown in the Gazette office by Martin Evergreen, Darnold, Wis., who returned from a Texas trip. This fruit was obtained near Mardelas, Texas, six miles from the Mexican border.

$300 vs. Chickens
Considering the results received day after day, by so many of the users of the "want ad" columns one might suppose the public would be educated to their advantages. It takes a real felt such as the following, to change a casual user into a regular advertiser.
Mrs. E. R. Woodstock, Route
8, put in a small ad, advertising chickens for sale. The paper was hardly out on the street when the calls began to come in. One man drove up to buy 75 of the chickens. The next day found $300 in the bank where the same value in chickens had been in the barnyard before.

Call 2500 and satisfy your wants.

AIRPLANES WITH GUNS NAB BRITISH BOOZE SCHOONER

LIQUOR RUNNER SEIZED OFF COAST OF
FLORIDA.
BIG WET CARGO
Flyers Swoop Down on Craft
After Watchful Cruise
Along Shore.

Miami, Fla.—The British schooner
Annabelle has been seized off Jewfish Creek, 40 miles south of Miami, with a cargo of 15,000 cases of whisky.
The seizure was made by the prohibition squadron operating out of Miami.
It was learned here late Monday from officials here.
The Annabelle's cargo consisted of 15,000 cases of whisky.
The crew of 21 men was captured and is held under surveillance, while the confiscated liquor is under guard aboard the schooner, which is anchored off Jewfish. The crew offered no resistance when the flying machines from all directions, with their machine guns pointing at the schooner, swooped down on the vessel.

Planes in Covey
Eleven airplanes, painted a battleship gray, gradually made their way down the coast last week. It became known here, one of them under the command of Capt. Rogers, stopping at Miami. Some of the others stopped at St. Augustine, Jacksonville, Charlestown, and other points.
Advance information was furnished by scouts aboard submarines which report the location of the Annabelle and others. The number of the planes gathered near Jewfish and at a signal gathered simultaneously over the alleged whisky carrier.

A Capt. Johnson, who brought the report here, stated that the prohibition squadron was equipped with a wave code which no other wireless apparatus could interpret. In the storm of each airplane is a Columbian machine gun capable of firing 400 shots a minute, manned by expert gunners.

HIG CHICAGO HOTEL IS ACCUSED OF BOOZE DEALS

Chicago.—Criminal bills of information filed Tuesday by the national prohibition law, were filed against the Sherman Hotel company late Monday by United States District Attorney Charles F. Glynn. The bills allege that the company during the last few months has sold 1,457 gallons of whisky without a permit or on fictitious permits. Over a half million dollars' illegal business is charged.

The action taken Monday is the result of months of investigation by Mr. Glynn, and Charles J. Monahan, assistant district attorney, aided by agents from the office of Col. A. H.
Barnshaw, chief of the intelligence unit of the department of internal revenue.

London Eagerly Devours Princess' Wedding Details

London.—Plans for the wedding of Princess Mary and Viscount Lascelles are nearing completion, and early frequenters of London's streets will see some morning this week empty carriages drawn along the route, covered by curtains in rehearsal of the procession from the palace to Westminster Abbey, so nothing may go awry on the all important day.
In reality there will be two processions on Feb. 25, the day of the wedding. Queen Mary and Queen Mother Alexandra, with their escort will form the first, the king following shortly afterward with the bride and an escort.
The route will not be decorated throughout, but there will be two triumphal arches and near the abbey the roadway will be adorned with cascades of flowers supported by pillars with ornamental devices bearing portraits of the bride and groom.
Public Gobbles
Every new detail of the ceremony is displayed by the newspapers and avidly seized upon by the public which thus learns Tuesday that the hat in which the bride will start her honeymoon is of "tulle and larkspur and georgette," the mole to match the moleskin wrap which the princess will wear, and the blue georgette to match her dress.
Further details are that the marriage knot will be tied by the Archbishop of Canterbury, the archbishop of York, the bishop of London, the bishop of Oxford, the dean of Westminster and Canon Lascelles, the bridegroom's uncle.
Preparations are under way for popular celebrations of the wedding activities. The "Brighter London Society," an organization composed mainly of business and theatrical men, H. G. Selridge being one of its leaders, aims at making the week of the wedding "brighter London week" in honor of the princess.
Brilliant Social Events.
In social, court and diplomatic circles such a round of dances and dinners and receptions has been planned as London has not seen since the coronation. For the general public a number of "Princess Mary wedding ballys" have been planned.
Hotels and restaurants are arranging dinners and dances. Clubs and various societies will have house warmings and homecomings. The railroads are running special excursions from all parts of the kingdom.
Newspapers and magazines are issuing special Princess Mary numbers.

R. R. Men and Coal Miners Talk Defensive Alliance

Chicago.—A "defensive alliance" was discussed here Tuesday by coal mine and railway union leaders who assembled on the invitation of John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America. Fifteen of the sixteen major railway unions accepted Lewis' invitation to participate in the conference. Just to what extent the railway union representatives will enter into the alliance has not been indicated.

Mr. Lewis of the miners union said he was confident that the conference with the railroad labor chiefs would be "fruitful of results" but he did not indicate what sort of an understanding was expected to be developed from the conference. He also said that other conferences in the future would probably be necessary before any final program for the alliance might be adopted.

The threatened miners strike of April 1, according to the miners officials, was in no way connected with the proposed alliance, but the officials said their hope was to create a working arrangement between the miners and the rail men so that the potential strength of 2,000,000 in two basic industries might be of such force as to prevent any arbitrary wage reductions by employers without conferences with the workers.

The "Big Four" brotherhoods were represented by their vice presidents while the ship unions had their principal executive officers here. Besides Mr. Lewis, the miners represented by Vice President Philip Murray, Secretary Wm. Green, and others.

Wants to Meet Operators.
Chicago.—President John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers of America Tuesday asked coal operators of the Central competitive field, covering the states of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, and also to Western Pennsylvania to meet with union officials at Cleveland on March 2, for a wage conference which he said, might avert the impending strike.
Similar requests have been rejected by some operators who said they wished to discontinue collective bargaining with the miners.

RESERVATIONS FOR TREATY PROPOSED BY THE SENATE

CONGRESS TO BE FINAL ARBITER ON ANY ACTION.
MEMBERS AGREE
Senator Lodge Is for the Reservation by Sen.
Brandegge.

Washington.—A reservation to the four power treaty, providing that no
"adjustments or understandings" reached under its provisions shall be binding without the consent of congress, was debated for two hours at the senate foreign relations committee today without action, but with a majority of the members indicating their general approval.
Senator Brandegge, republican, Connecticut, offered the reservation and committee members said, the discussion developed that even Senator Lodge, the committee chairman and one of the American delegates to the treaty conference, was favorably disposed toward its adoption.
To Adopt Reservation
Senator Pomeroy, democrat, Ohio, presented a substitute, covering somewhat the same ground, but the committee reached no vote on either proposition.
By some committee members, it was predicted after the meeting that Brandegge's reservation would be adopted by a virtually unanimous vote after some further discussion and that other reservations which have been tentatively drafted by various senators would be withheld until the treaty comes into the senate. It was said a favorable report with the reservation attached, might be voted Wednesday.

Better Be Yank,
Grampa John D's.
Word to Max Oser
Chicago.—John D. Rockefeller has given his approval to the marriage of his granddaughter Mathilde McCormick, 15 years old daughter of Harold P.
McCormick to Max Oser, Swiss judge and son of a millionaire here Tuesday. Approval was given in a brief telegram, it was said, and it was reported also that he had expressed a wish that Oser become an American citizen. On this latter point there was no information forthcoming from the McCormick family.

New alleged relatives of Oser appeared in Chicago Monday in persons of Mrs. August F. Oser, her daughter, Lottie Doerchner, and Mrs. Doerchner's nine months old baby, Doris. Mrs. F. Oser said her husband was a first cousin to Max Oser.

Emil Burg, the first Chicaguan to announce his relationship to Oser, called at the Mc-Cormick home Monday. He was informed that Mr. McCormick and his daughter Mathilde were not receiving Monday, it was said.

Salary Lists Are Changed Again by City Council

In a great upheaval and flopover from their informal agreement of 72 hours before, city councilmen put on another exhibition of mental gymnastics before a capacity audience Monday night, when they voted, 11 to 3, for passage of a new salary ordinance embodying all the 26 increases contained in the original ordinance two weeks ago believed substituting the same old salaries for the sanitary inspector and city scaler.
The session was featured by numerous sharp clashes, among them an argument between Ald. J.
J. Sheridan and Mayor T. E. Welsh, and another in which Ald. L. J.
Cronin and Ald. J. K. Jensen disagreed over the term, "star chamber session."
It was the "fourth meeting in which fixing 1922 salaries has been the chief topic.
Raising in salary aggregating $4,530 are provided for the chief of three aldermen serving without compensation will be decided by a referendum vote at the regular spring election Tuesday, April 4. It was decided by the council, Monday night, following the presentation of petitions signed by 1,178 voters.
Not an unnecessary word was spoken when the matter was brought up.
City Clerk E. J. Sarrett read the petition at the outset of the regular Feb. 20 meeting called following adjournment of the final session on salaries. The petitions were referred to the judicial committee. Ald.
John C. Harlow, chairman, and after the regular recess were reported back to the council by Alderman Harlow with a resolution that the referendum be held at the time of the regular session, April 4. The motion was adopted unanimously, the question to be submitted to the people in the manner provided for in the petition, the words of which follow:
"To the City of Janesville, Wisconsin: Gentlemen: We, the undersigned, duly qualified electors of the City of Janesville, Rock County, Wisconsin, do hereby petition the city council, and constituting more than ten percent thereof, to hereby respectfully petition that the council by ordinance, amend the city charter, under Chapter 64 of the Statutes (Chapters 75 and 353 of the laws of 1919) and all statutes amendatory thereof and mentioned therein. And we respectfully pray your Honorable Body that at the election to be held as provided by law, the question shall be submitted as follows:
"Shall the City of Janesville be reorganized under Chapter 64 of the Statutes (Chapters 75 and 353 of the laws of 1919) providing for the City Manager plan, with a council composed of seven members, to be elected for the term of two years, each to serve without compensation?"

City Manager Election for Regular Election Day

Whether or not Janesville shall adopt the city manager form of government with a legislative body composed of seven aldermen serving without compensation will be decided by
a referendum vote at the regular
spring election Tuesday, April 4. It was decided by the council, Monday
night, following the presentation of petitions signed by 1,178 voters.

DE VALERA COMES OUT OPENLY FOR SINN FEIN SPLIT

SAYS TWO ARMIES BETTER THAN DIVIDED
FORCE.
Former President Is Firm
Against Free State
Status for Erin

Dublin.—Eamonn De Valera, apparently regarding a split of the Sinn Fein party as inevitable, openly advocated such a division in addressing the annual convention of the Sinn Fein convention at its extraordinary session Tuesday, saying it would be better for Ireland to have two armies each ready to assist the other, than the country being impeded rather than one army divided in itself.
Mr. De Valera's speech was the outstanding feature of the morning session which had only begun the discussion of the party's future policy for or against the Anglo-Irish treaty when the luncheon adjournment was taken until 3 p. m.
Speaking for his resolution urging the Sinn Fein party to continue the fight for a republic, Mr. De Valera went heavily apologetic.
"I would rather see the country flooded with British troops than give them the irrevocable right to be here," he asserted.
"Ireland," he declared, "is entitled to the dignity of a mother country and never became a colony. Let her be the illegitimate daughter of England." Again, he said:
"My position is the same as when I was made president of this organization, when I said, 'Our colors are nailed to the mast.' What I said I meant."

Church Barred from Court at Sanity Hearing

Chicago.—Harvey Church, murderer, was barred from the hearing into his insanity by Judge Scanlon Tuesday. Judge Scanlon said he had no conscience that to bring Church into court on a stretcher would influence the jury.
Judge Scanlon reserved the right to revoke his decision after if the hearing warrants bringing in Church.
Physicians testifying for the defense said they had picked Church with pins and painfully injured him, but that he showed no signs of knowing it. They said he had failed to understand them when they had, as a test, told him he was free and could leave jail. They said such a condition indicated insanity.

Farmer Bleeds to Death When Hurt by Wagon

Verona.—Henry Mauler, 61, a farmer living near here, died Tuesday Monday when caught between the wheels of his lumber wagon, severing an artery in his leg. Mauler had stopped his horses to hold them while a train passed. They started to run away, the wagon hitting him before he was able to step aside.

ROMA, PURCHASED FROM ITALY, FALLS IN FLAMING MASS

MANY LIVES BELIEVED
LOST IN LATEST
TRAGEDY.
FOUR ARE RESCUED

Was Largest Semi-Rigid Airship in World; Bought for U. S. Army Use.

Portsmouth, Va.—According to a bulletin received at a hospital at Portsmouth at 3:45 p. m., 38 men on board the Roma were killed. At that hour 12 bodies had been taken from the wreckage.

Boston.—A bulletin received at the Boston Navy yard by Radio from Washington this afternoon said that was reported there that 25 of the 50 men aboard the Army dirigible Roma, were killed when the aircraft plunged to earth.

Norfolk, Va.—The army dirigible Roma, purchased by the United States government from Italy and only recently commissioned, was destroyed by an explosion Tuesday while operating over the Hampton Roads naval base.

The big aircraft, believed to be carrying a number of passengers, landed in flames near the naval base.

Soon after she fell, four men were taken off alive. The heat of the flames was so intense that those near where the craft fell were unable to approach.
The four men rescued were badly burned.

The Roma, which was the largest semi-rigid airship in the world, was sailing in a southeasterly direction when, according to observers, she suddenly burst into flames. She fell to the ground about 2 p. m. after the explosion occurred shortly after 2
p. m.

Authorities at Langley field, the home station of the Roma, and the point at which she was assembled after being brought here from Italy, said that fully 40 men were aboard the big airship, but whether there was loss of life had not yet been ascertained. Half an hour after she was seen to burst into flames.

Fourteen men, according to other observers at Portsmouth, were seen to leap from the ship as it became enveloped in flames. Some of the naval base barracks buildings. Some it was reported, flung to parachute while others jumped straight to the ground.

Reports from the scope of the burning ship said at 3 p. m. when she still was burning like a furnace, that fully half a dozen men were plunged beneath the wreckage. The body of one man had been removed up to that time.

STRIKES BARBACES
Reports from Portsmouth, which is near the naval base, said the Roma, after a starting plunge of flames of feet, struck one of the barracks buildings at the base and then exploded with a ripping crash. A sheet of flame leaped from the rent in the base building, the flames and smoke plunged down to the ground level.

Other officials at Langley field said there were 25 men in the official crew of the airship and 30 or 40 passengers and enlisted men aboard.
One man was seen by observers at the Standard Oil company plant at Sewards Point to jump from the ship while she was still several hundred feet in the air.

Allied Debt Commission Nominated

Washington.—Nomination of Secretary Mellon, Secretary Hughes, Secretary Hoover, Senator Smoot, and Representative Burton to be members of the allied debt funding commission will be sent to the senate Tuesday, it was announced at the White House.

Revolt Against Obregon in Air

San Antonio, Tex.—Rumors of a huge conspiracy against the Obregon government in Torreon and belief that a conference of revolutionists was held in San Antonio Monday, attended by Estaban Cantu, were the development of the Mexican situation Tuesday. While no one admits participation in a conference, the rank and file of the old Carranzistas were much in evidence about hotel lobbies Monday.

DEMOCRATS SMILE AT BONUS PLIGHT

Republicans in Dilemma Over Ways and Means of Raising Fund.

By DAVID LAWRENCE.
Copyright 1921, by Janesville Gazette.

Washington.—The bonus problem gets bigger and bigger. More negatives from the executive end of the government fail to stem the tide of sentiment on Capitol Hill for some kind of a bonus.

But the more the republicans are able to tell the nation men that if the republicans really wanted to pass a bonus and pay it they could, the more they would the money be obtained? It's here the complexity of the financial problem of the government affords opportunity for all sorts of misinterpretation. Senator told the writer, for instance, that the British government was ready and able to pay a part of its debt to the United States government and a part of the sum borrowed from American banking concerns before the United States entered the war in 1917. He insisted that the determination of these banking interests to get their money before the American government received anything from England.

Hard to Trace.—This kind of argument is hard to trace. The Anglo-French loan, floated in the United States before the war, amounted to $500,000,000. The interest payments have been regularly met. If any sum beyond that amount is owed to American financial firms, the treasury hasn't the figures. Some estimates run as high as five billions of dollars, but the statistics cannot be verified. There has been a recurrence of these rumors in the last few days because of the statements from French officials that France probably wouldn't be able to pay its debt to the United States at any time.

The question of whether American private firms shall receive from the allies the money owed them ahead of any payments on the American government's debt is something the fund-raising commission will be appointed by President Harding will have to thresh out with the allies. This commission consists of the secretary of the treasury, and two members of the cabinet, as well as a representative of the senate and house.

Will Watch Commission.—Certainly it looks now as if this funding commission will be subjected to more scrutiny than anybody imagines. It is an august body, and the chances are its work will be as carefully and closely watched as if it were a commission negotiating a vital treaty. While it is true that the White House has declined to promise to use any funds received from allied payments as a basis for paying the soldier bonus, the reason given was simply that no one knew at that moment how much money was coming. It is to be expected, therefore, to postpone indefinitely the enactment of a bill providing for the bonus is accepted, the measure will crop up again just as soon as there are any available funds from any source.

The only money due the United States government, aside from taxation and import duties, is interest on principal on foreign loans. The allies have believed the United States would not press for payment. The demands of the soldiers for a bonus may become a lever for getting the American debt commission will operate in its efforts to persuade the allies that repudiation or cancellation of the debt is unthinkable.

Fund from Taxation.—Opinion is of course divided as to whether it would be just to use the proceeds from the allied debt to pay a bonus. The original law whereby the Liberty loans were raised provided that the first money received from the allies should go toward the payment of Liberty bonds. This viewpoint has recently been expressed at the White House, too. But even if the money is applied to pay interest on Liberty bonds, the advocates of a bonus insist that the United States government will then have the money available from direct taxation, which now is being raised to pay interest on public debt, something like $800,000,000 a year. If the allied payments reduce that amount, for example, by $300,000,000 annually, there will be an equivalent sum available from direct taxation whereof the bonus might be paid.

Part of Debt Available.—The end of the bonus problem is not in sight. Schemes glare are flourishing in the gossip of congressional cloakrooms. President Harding stands committed to the payment of a bonus sometime. He insists he has hitherto favored it, but that he did not believe last August that this year's rights time to burden the treasury with it. He holds out hope for the future and promises faithfully to sign a bonus bill if the means of payment can be found. The financial wizards of Capitol Hill are daily propounding various plans and it is not unlikely that when the British actually begin paying interest on their debt, some of that fund will be used directly and indirectly as a basis for bonus payments.

Youngstown Mayor Hits Speedy Pace in Cleaning Up City; Many New Ideas

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Youngstown, O.—Col. George L. Oles, Youngstown's little jazz mayor, is "biting on every cylinder and taking the hill on high."

He's making good! The frank mayor, who set the United States on fire when he read into the record the platform that sponsored spoiling in the parks, short skirts, arrests for taxpayers who paid taxes under a new and high assessment, and a promise to take the city under a half has taken the city by storm.

What "George" Has Done.—"Let George do it," said Oles, after he went to office. And in one month a fine, this is what George has done:

Suspended the chief of police for neglect of duty. Closed seventy-five speakeasies. Threatened with murder a man who had been in the city for a month.

Ordered the underworld to "drink up, pack up and take away." Threatened with murder a man who had been in the city for a month.

Two Minnesota Sisters Set Precedent When Both File for Congress

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Ashtabula, Neb.—Probably for the first time in history of American suffrage, two sisters are candidates for congress this year. The Mrs. Irene C. Buell, city prosecutor of Ashtabula, Neb., and Mrs. A. K. Gaul, mayor of St. Peter, Minn.

Mrs. Buell filed her petition as a candidate from the Fourth Nebraska Congressional district yesterday.

"I told my sister that if she ran for congress, I would too," Mrs. Buell said in discussing her candidacy. "She classes herself as a Progressive Democrat being in favor of the soldier bonus, decreased taxes, better farm prices, strict law enforcement and a uniform marriage act."

Mrs. Buell has been prosecutor since 1916. She is a graduate of the law school of the University of Minnesota and was admitted to law practice before the United States Supreme court in 1910.

Will Investigate Some Conditions at the U. of W.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Madison.—Charges that University of Wisconsin department heads and instructors have been discriminating against students from school and have unreasonably placed large numbers on probation, will be investigated by the board of visitors and board of regents at a joint meeting March 1.

George P. Hambrecht, member of the board of visitors and director of vocational education, will present the cases of the students, who are said to be objecting, especially with regard to the accounting courses which have already been under investigation by the student senate.

Mr. Hambrecht said that he has been selected to explain the situation, and expects that the regents, with clear up misunderstandings and will put out the many stories that have been told of conditions in the institution.

W. H. Dougherty, U. S. district attorney.—"I think he was a very good judge and exercised a very fine influence on the public. He is a very capable baseball player, but his unique and exceptional ability, made him a valuable man on the bench. It is unfortunate the government cannot keep a man like him on the bench."

It is a distinct loss from the fact that there are few judges take the grand law as, but at the same time the way is such it is a question whether it is adequate. Probably that is the reason he has entered baseball."

Miss Gogg is an artist who is making a place and name for herself in the musical world. She is a Wisconsin girl, having been born and raised in Wausau. Miss Gogg is a beautiful singer, and her voice is a delight to the ears. She sang "The first of the evening," "The first of the evening," "The first of the evening," and also sang again later in the evening.

OLD GUARD DEFIES EDICT OF FARMERS

Hold Adjourned Annual Meeting of Milk Producers' Association.

The old guard of the Chicago Milk Producers' association refused to surrender and heed the injunction of the insurgent milk producers from Wisconsin. Before the annual meeting of the stockholders in the city of Chicago, the old guard made a raid on the regular annual meeting of the producers' association and after being turned down in the meeting, held their own session, elected officers and served an injunction against the new group from collecting money of transacting business.

The old guard rebelled and held their adjourned annual meeting on Monday afternoon and the press reported that 2,000 delegates attended the Hotel La Salle meeting.

Frank Holt, Kenosha, was re-elected president and L. C. Rockwell, secretary. So now there are new sets of officers both claiming authority.

The new group, which has offices at 2 South Clinton street, is upheld in its stand to get for the milk producer the cost of production and a net profit according to the old guard.

Other officers of the old guard were: Vice presidents, Roy Lewis, Wheaton; Joseph Kreiter, Crown Point, Ind.; and W. A. Goodwin, Crystal Lake, Ill. Treasurer, Daniel Gilly, Barrington, Ill.

CITY COUNCIL MAKES A CHANGE IN SALARY LIST

agreement was practically a complete tip-over of the previous salary schedule. The action of last night is almost in complete contradiction to Friday's agreement.

"I was in favor of letting salaries stand as we first fixed them," said Ald. J. D. Horn, "but I decided to abide by the majority in the secret meeting of Friday night. Now we're back to where we started and we're going to increase our salaries on Friday on one or two matters let's do it on all of them."

Ald. J. J. Dulin interrupted Mr. Horn to inquire if the secret meeting was that.

Mr. Horn ignored the question.

M. O. Mount asked the question.

Although called for 7:30, it was 7:40 before the adjourned regular meeting got under way because of tardiness of some of the aldermen. The city attorney looked up the council rules and announced that 10 were necessary for a quorum. The meeting was called and the other four aldermen came in a few minutes later.

"Not afraid of a 'star chamber' session, are they?" remarked Dulin, who then started a discussion of what constitutes a quorum.

Calling the press to task for not giving credit where due, M. O. Mount, newest member of the police and fire commission, was asked to take the floor on the salary question, asking:

that Chief Charles Newman and Chief C. J. Murphy be given $2,400 a year instead of $2,100. As a basis of comparison, each has proved his efficiency and worthiness. Mr. Mount, said, telling of the saving of $3,000 in the police department by cutting off two men and saving $5,000 or more in the fire department by cutting off two men, he said that Chief Newman's operation with his men in not adopting the two-platoon system. He told of the "gentlemen's agreement" made by the police and fire commission with Chief Newman whereby he was to receive $2,500 if his services proved satisfactory, and said that the chief had to sell his home in Dredhead to come here under that agreement.

Sheridan offered a resolution to have the ordinance read as drafted at the council caucus, but Alderman Gibbons interposed:

"It looks to me as though we are morally bound to give Chief Newman an amendment that each chief be given $2,400."

Following discussion as to whether or not this was to be considered a formal or informal, it was finally decided to call it informal and call for a reading of the salaries by the city attorney.

"It doesn't look right to me," said Alderman Cronin, "to go on Friday night when Alderman Jensen proposed two weeks ago that we put this matter to a committee of seven, I voted against it because I thought it should go to a committee of three. That's what the meeting was Friday night. The aldermen were there and the report or was there. It was not a 'star chamber' session as the aldermen

COLORED SOCIETY THANKS K. K. K. FOR CLEANUP METHODS

Shawnee, Okla.—A six foot negro entered a local newspaper office early Tuesday.

"The looking for the editor," he said, and laid a slip of paper on a desk.

"We cleaned folks who is on the right side wonders if you will print this in your paper," he told the editor. "We have an organization which believes in doing right. But, sah, I can't tell you my name."

And as he finished speaking, he rolled his big white eyes toward the door and made a hasty exit. The note which he left read:

"To the members of the Ku Klux Klan: Greetings:

"We wish to thank you for your efforts for helping to stop dishonest and unclean practices in this section of the town. We will appreciate any future steps that you may take to wipe out these practices."

(Signed):

"This Colored Secret Spying Society of Southtown."

The note is said to relate to the alleged whipping of two negro boys Saturday night.

The story was printed.

From the Third said in the paper the next day. I think we should stick by our salaries as fixed Friday and recommend to the police and fire commission that they reduce the police force."

Jensen Replies to Cronin.

"I would like to say a few words on this motion but first I would like to answer my friend from the Southtown," said Alderman Jensen, entering the discussion here. "I believed the meeting Friday night was to be a 'star chamber' affair because as I remember it at the meeting two weeks ago it was Alderman Cronin who offered the motion that we hold a meeting of the 14 aldermen and the mayor alone, mentioning that not even the city attorney or the city clerk should be present."

"In reference to the proposed salary list I oppose giving the salary $1,000 because I don't think the office is worth it and I couldn't vote with a clear conscience for the ordinance as it stands. Then gave an explanation of the importance of the office, detailing how two or three years ago when the state inspector went through Janesville he found only two scales correct."

"Some were giving short measure, others over," he said. "I think it's one of the most important city offices we have."

Following a statement from City Auditor Glenn G. Snyder in which he told of his taking 50 percent of a 3-hour day to look after the 2,000 or 3,000 scales and measures in Janesville, inspections must be frequent, not once a year, he declared.

Explaining that he was glad to have been enlightened, Alderman Jensen then said he would not oppose a $1,000 salary for the scaler.

Alderman Sheridan took the floor here to call for a vote on his resolution.

"We've had four meetings on this already—it's about time to bring it to a head," he said.

A roll-call on the Sheridan resolution to pass the ordinance as informally agreed upon Friday night ended in a tie 7 to 7. The "Noes" were: Cronin, Gibbons, Jensen, Kerrel, Hanson, Menzies and Smith.

"Tie" queried the mayor. "Well, then gentlemen, I'll vote. No. Your resolution is defeated and a broad smile spread over his face."

"I want to ask the mayor when he changed his mind?" shouted Alderman Sheridan jumping to his feet. "You changed it Friday night when you had a mind of your own," he said, starting to sit down.

When he had opportunity to answer the mayor said:

"About changing my mind—I have not done so. I made a promise and I usually keep the promise. I make, at least so far as I can recollect."

Following defeat of the Sheridan resolution, Alderman Horn moved that the ordinance be passed to give all officials and employees the increases proposed 2 weeks ago. He explained his position that he was willing to abide by the majority as shown at the informal meeting Friday night but declared that if this agreement was going to be overthrown in one particular it should be in all.

"I say don't vote one way one night and the other way the next," he said. "If you haven't got the strength of your conviction, don't vote. Alderman Jensen voted for $2,000 for the sanitary inspector because he wasn't enforcing the milk ordinance. But now that he has agreed to do this, he'll be getting $1,800. Dr. Welch is entitled to $2,800 and so I would offer a resolution that we provide for all the raises—$1,800 for the sanitary inspector, $2,400 for the two chiefs, $1,200 for the health officer, $2,000 for the treasurer, $2,000 for the scaler and $2,400 for the city attorney."

Another Meeting Suggested.

After the resolution had been seconded by Alderman Harlow, Alderman Cronin remarked to the amusement of the audience and even the aldermen themselves:

"Better have another adjourned meeting, please."

This suggestion was not taken seriously, however, and a roll-call on Horn's resolution showed only four opposed—Traver, Cronin, Helms and Sheridan.

On the resolution to give the ordinance, embodying all the raises, its first two readings, three voted "No."—Sheridan, Traver and Cronin. The same three were recorded as "Noes" on Alderman Dulin's resolution to pass the ordinance under suspension of the rules and also on the final motion to adopt it.

The whole salary discussion furnished lots of free amusement to the crowd of spectators, many of whom left after the big show of the evening was over. There was a good deal of laughing and the audience and the councilmen themselves during the recess which followed. The officers and employees given salary increases were in good humor and one or two of them shook hands with the aldermen. It was a gala night for aldermanic government.

MANY HEAR ABOUT YELLOWSTONE PARK

When the refuse is taken from the camps and hotels in Yellowstone park the cubs and black bears come out of the forest first to feast. They make a hurrying job of their meal for the moment. Old Silvertip, the grizzly appears, all others leave the feeding grounds. There is no argument about it.

This fact and others were related by Mrs. Elita M. Rhoades, Beloit, during her interesting illustrated lecture on Monday night in the Methodist church. More than 200 attended the program, which included the lecture and musical numbers.

"The person who has not been to Yellowstone park has missed many of the world's greatest sights and this park belongs to the people," declared Mrs. Rhoades.

"She told of the geysers and of one incident where camp attendants 'scaped' one of the main geysers with a box full of soap-chips which it is violation to park laws—with the result every geyser in the basin burst forth in violent display. It was an astounding natural phenomenon which astounded scientists. The slides shown were vividly colored, showing the strange formations of the canyons, hot pools and geysers basins."

ARCHEOLOGISTS PEEVED AT WORK ON OLD PARTHENON

Athens—The manner in which the work of restoring the north colonnade of the Parthenon is being undertaken has aroused the criticism of archeologists in Athens. They assert that the ministry of public instruction is conducting this undertaking with no more care than would be devoted to the repairing of a modern building.

Archeologists the world over regard this Temple of Pallas, erection of which was begun 450 B. C. as deserving of the utmost care. One expert in archeology here says that the restoration of the Parthenon is continued on the lines proposed by

Suggestions for Constructing Bird Houses

Wood is the best building material for Bird Houses, therefore only bird houses made of wood may be entered in the competition. Entrances should be cut in the side of the house and covered with a piece of wire mesh or a piece of fine wire netting. The house should be painted in a neutral shade of green or gray. If the house is made of boards and covered with bark or the best. All houses should be easy to open for cleaning. A porch at the entrance is not necessary, and where there are many bird houses it is better not to have any porch. Provision for ventilation should be made close under the roof, but there should never be any ventilation holes unless an entrance. All birds should be built in the center of the house, a small drainage hole may be made in the center of the floor. Place your house where cats cannot disturb it and at proper distance from house.

THIS TIME EDISON TURNS BATTERY OF QUERIES ON BANKERS

West Orange, N. J.—A new questionnaire addressed to bankers and economists, has been sent out by Thomas A. Edison, asking opinions on a variety of subjects, one being whether national resources were not a good basis for federal currency. The first question was: "What in your opinion would be the approximate market value of a tray ounce of pure gold if all the governments of the world should demonetize it?"

Other information sought was why currency issued on a basis of 50 per cent of the value of necessary of life stored in government warehouses would not be sound money, another why the equity retained in the warehouse goods could not be discounted at commercial banks. If such issues of money are unsound, the inventor asks that the bankers enlighten him.

"How Kenosha Did it," Is to Be Told by Women

The remarkably successful campaign of education put on by the club women of Kenosha for the city manager's office, they have invited a victory at the polls a short time ago, has excited much interest among Janesville women, who have started a similar campaign. To gratify this natural curiosity, they have invited some of the Kenosha ladies who were prominent workers, to come to Janesville and tell "how they did it," and a team of four women, headed by Mrs. Ashby, president of the Kenosha women's club, have promised to be in the city on Friday for this purpose.

Arrangements for a luncheon and reception for the ladies were made at a meeting of an executive committee held on Monday afternoon. It was decided to have a one o'clock luncheon served in the parlors of the Baptist church, to which all ladies are invited, if they make reservations by morning. A caterer for the occasion was selected to meet the guests. Later a public meeting will be held in the Sunday school room of the church, during which the ladies will relate their experiences and tell how they conducted the campaign. Mrs. J. E. Nichols will also sing.

The president of all women's organizations are asked to serve on the reception committee for this occasion and also to find out how many wish reservations from their clubs. All reservations must be telephoned to Mrs. George Buchholz, Red 1140, or to Mrs. M. M. Fries, Red 2482, before 10 o'clock morning. A caterer has been secured and the price for luncheon been fixed at 75 cents a plate. Those who will serve at the tables are Mrs. J. C. Hanchett, Mrs. George Buchholz, Mrs. E. P. Egan, Mrs. E. B. Humphrey, Mrs. L. K. Crissey, Mrs. Eugene Cramb, Mrs. Arthur Jones, and Mrs. J. I. Antos.

ZONING ORDINANCE UP TO COUNCIL

Planning Commission Puts Measure in Ward Solon's Hands After Long Work.

After months of strenuous work on a zoning ordinance which included the holding of three public hearings and the making of numerous suggestions, the city planning commission finally has the matter before the common council for consideration. At the regular council meeting, Monday night, drafts of the ordinance were presented to each alderman to study with the hope that some action will be taken in the near future.

City Engineer C. V. Kerch explained that the ordinance was in such shape that it is up to the councilmen to decide whether it shall be adopted as recommended by the commission, or with some changes, or with some entirely new provisions that you will take action in the near future," Mr. Kerch said.

Bids on Chief's Car
The council passed a resolution presented by Ald. J. J. Dulin instructing the city clerk to advertise for bids for furnishing the fire chief with a new car to replace the present chief's car which is going on its 12th year of service. The resolution followed the presentation of an offer by J. A. Drummond to provide a six-cylinder 1932 Buick roadster equipped with five over-sized cord tires, bumpers and spot-light for $1,475.

Ald. D. H. Hottel's motion that the city hall be closed all day, Wednesday, Washington's birthday, was passed unanimously.

The city clerk was instructed to bid for the license tags for the year 1932-33 upon motion of Ald. J. J. Sheridan.

Aldermen to Dance
Following the reading of an invitation from the police department to attend the fifth annual police dance at the armory, Thursday night, Ald. L. J. Cronin moved that "we all go" and the resolution was adopted unanimously.

A petition of 113 North Academy street, was given a taxi driver's license while the applications of George Flakas and Burr Strang for licenses under the new motor bus ordinance were left in the hands of the committee's hands pending the filing of fixed routes and schedules.

The councilmen received favorably a recommendation from Ald. J. J. Cronin that when making a resolution in committee's hands no resolution is necessary. It merely clutters up the minutes with useless material, he said.

A petition of property owners protesting against any paving on North First street, from Division to Wisconsin, this year was left in the hands of the highway committee.

The 121 report of the water department was received and ordered published.

DEPUTY DRIVES 33 MILES TO GET MAN WHO MADE BOASTS

Because he is alleged to have made boasts about "getting away so easy" following his arrest in a raid on a house of ill-fame on the Janesville-Beloit highway, Friday night, Ralph Wagner was placed under arrest Tuesday, on a charge of transporting liquor. Deputy Sheriff Roy Worthington, hearing of the alleged boasts, drove 33 miles to the Wagner home at Twiss Grove, between Juda and Monroe, Tuesday morning, to rearrest him.

Arraigned in municipal court before Justice Charles Lange, presiding in the absence of Judge E. L. Maxfield, Wagner had his examination set for Feb. 24, and was released in custody of the arresting officer.

Wagner is alleged to have had two plates of liquor in his overcoat pockets when arrested in the Happy Hollow raid. He was fined $25 for being in a house of ill-fame.

Jazz Dancing on Icy Streets, Day's Feature

Falls and fancy dancing were common on the streets of Janesville Tuesday, starting at noon. Hundreds took part in the carnival. The "spread eagle slide" and the "proliferation polka" featured.

The 121 report of the water department was received and ordered published.

Wednesday Is Legal Holiday

Washington's birthday, Wednesday, will be a day of rest to employees of local banks, courts, both municipal and county, city hall departments and freight houses, and will be the occasion, in society circles, of many luncheons, dinners, dances and parties. The Moose mask ball will be held at night at the armory, there will be a private dancing party at East Side Odd Fellows hall and many evening parties in various homes.

Schools will not close all day, because of the state laws, but will have programs in the afternoon.

400 HEAR LAUGHLIN AT I. O. O. F. RALLY

Four hundred people attended the annual roll call of Wisconsin lodge No. 14, at East Side Odd Fellows hall Monday night when the main attraction was given by Rev. J. W. McLaughlin, of Oshkosh, a member of the Janesville lodge, and for eight years pastor of the Janesville Presbyterian church. He spoke on remembrance of 20 years ago, when he was in this city. A literary and musical program with dancing followed. Hatch's orchestra played.

EXHUME, IDENTIFY BODY AT PALMYRA

Brothers, Uncles and Dentist Certain Corpse That of Edward Thielens.

Palmyra.—The mystery victim of Miracle creek was late Tuesday positively identified as the late Edward Thielens, who had done some work for the victims. Mrs. M. Thielens was prostrate at her home in Racine and was unable to view the body of her son.

While Akron, O., police are searching for Fred McBride, on orders to arrest him in connection with the murder of Thielens, District Attorney Ray C. Twining of Jefferson county was conducting an investigation here involving Mable Mitchell, East Troy. Mr. Twining has become acquainted with letters which McBride wrote to Miss Mitchell.

McBride wrote to her from Akron, O., Dec. 12 and 14. Unless the letters were mailed by someone else, McBride did not place the body of young Thielens in Miracle Creek. One angle of the possible solution to the mystery which is again becoming involved, is that Thielens was last seen on Nov. 12 when he left his car from Racine in company with McBride, expecting to go to East Troy. Where Thielens, or his dead body was between the time he left and when it was found almost a month later in the creek, is troubling officials. McBride returned the next day to the Thielens home and said his companion had gone to Chicago.

The girl wrote to McBride on Dec. 15 to Akron, but the letter was returned with the stamp, "No such person at this address."

Thielens is survived by six brothers and sisters, Carl, Neva, Joe, Robert, Ed, Maudie, Kenosha county. Lawrence, Caladonia, Wis., and three sisters, Eleanor, Leone, and Marion.

War Derelicts Are Terror to Baltic Sailors

Stockholm—Ghosts of the great war still haunt the Baltic, scaring veteran skippers, sailors, fishermen and steamship passengers alike.

Hardly a week passes without reports along the Swedish coast of drifting old mines and derelict submarines, both a serious danger to all navigation. The mines are principally of Russian and German origin. Many of them have been washed ashore on Gotland island, almost the center of the Baltic. The derelict U-boats haunt the western waters.

Dwellers along the shore have become accustomed to the terrific detonations of exploding mines, buried and ancient cliffs during gales. Energetic efforts have been made to sweep up these dangerous relics of the war, but it will probably be years before the North sea or the Baltic is free of them.

It is not at all uncommon for fishermen to catch mines in their nets. They are regarded as lucky catches, for the government pays handsomely for removal or destruction of the mines.

NEW LAW CODE FOR MONGOLIA PROMISED

China, Siberia.—The minister of justice of the new Mongolian revolutionary government has declared that Mongolia is now to have real justice and real laws administered in real courts for the first time since the minority Chinese Khan ruled at the now ruined city of Karakorum and made all Europe tremble before his power. Since Ghengis Khan, the new minister of justice says, princes had taken the law into their own hands and administered it with great brutality. But now there is to be a new code and a new system organized by the independent authorities of Uрга, who despise the Chinese limitations under which they have been laboring.

LA FOLLETTE TOPICK A FULL TICKET

Conference at Madison to Make up Slate of Radicals.

(The Associated Press.)
Madison.—The selection of a complete La Follette Progressive Republican ticket to enter the September primary election for state officials, will be considered this week in conference of party leaders with the senior Wisconsin senator.
Three state officials remain in doubt on the La Follette ticket: those of Lieutenant-governor, secretary of state and attorney general. Selection of assembly members and senators to make the race in an effort to capture a majority in the legislature favorable to Governor Blaine is to be made at the same time effort is made to determine on candidates for state offices.
The opposition forces represented by the committee of forty-four, are at present devoting themselves to organization work, having decided to put off their meeting to choose candidates until June 1.
Hall in Congress Race
The decision to enter the race for congress in the ninth congressional district, has raised a problem for the progressives in choosing a representative to fill this vacancy on their ticket.
George F. Comings, lieutenant-governor, has expressed willingness to be a candidate for the post, and if he is selected, there would be an opening in the lieutenant governorship. Laurence A. Gordon, assistant secretary of state, is mentioned as a likely candidate of the progressives for the secretary of state.
Should Gordon be chosen to make the race as secretary of state, Lieut. Gov. Comings would seek election.
Severance May Run
Senator H. J. Severance is named as the probable candidate for attorney general with J. E. Messerschmidt, assistant attorney-general, also seeking the place. Mr. Severance has not yet indicated whether he will accept the place on the ticket should it be tendered him.
Senator La Follette is expected to spend 90 days in the state campaigning, according to expression of his close associates.
He expects to settle the candidacies on his ticket and then prepare for a thorough campaign.

CHICAGO THEATER LANDMARKS PASS

McVickers, Grand, Powers and Olympic Slated for Workers.

Chicago.—Four of Chicago's theatrical landmarks—monuments to the business acumen of a song and dance comedian, a medicine show magnate, a minstrel manager and a pair of circus men—are slated for destruction.
Workers already have begun dismantling ensembles under McVickers, most venerable of the downtown theaters, and the wreckers will take charge in May. George M. Cohan's Grand opera house, Powers and with them will soon follow, and with them will disappear the loop's most notable reminders of Victorian grandeur, carved walnut and red plush.
The Grand probably will be the last of the quartet to go, as under the terms of the present lease it must be rebuilt before Jan. 1, 1924. Powers, known as a by-gone theater, and generation for nearly 50 years has held Chicago for the most illustrious house in which the most illustrious actors preferred to appear, will give way to an addition to the Hotel Sherman.

With Rehearsal Olympic.
Owners of the Olympic are planning to rebuild that house as soon as conditions are favorable.
James H. McVicker, founder of the theater which still bears his name, was the song and dance comedian in Chicago's early quartette of theatrical magnates. A traveling company brought him here in the early days, and in 1887 he built his first theater on the spot where the present playhouse—now devoted to continuous vaudeville—stands. The theater immediately became the most important center of dramatic activity in the mid-west, and nightly hereafter crowded omnibuses left its doors after the performance for the house along the river and the fashionably outlying suburb of Cottage Grove, now part of the near north side.
McVicker installed a resident stock company which "supported" a notable succession of visiting stars—Charlotte Cushman, Edwin Booth, the elder Southern, J. H. Hackett, Lotta Crabtree, Lawrence Barrett, Charles Kean and many others. Here Edwin Booth met Mary McVicker, the manager's daughter, whom he later, after marriage, there was double mourning, for the assassin, J. Wilkes Booth, had played McVicker's often. Here, in 1866, "Black Crook" had its phenomenal

Chicago run of 56 nights.
Burned in 1871.
The theater was destroyed in the great fire of 1871, and was the first playhouse to be rebuilt after the disaster. In 1880 it was again destroyed by fire, and the present structure dates from its restoration in 1882.
The medicine show magnate was John A. Hamlin and the minstrel manager, Richard M. Hooley. In 1870 Hooley who had made a fortune with his minstrel troupes, bought Bryan Hall, a concert auditorium, rebuilt it and prepared to open Hooley's Opera House. The fire of 1871 destroyed the theater on the very night before it was to be opened and swept his fortune away.
In 1873, Hamlin, famous throughout the country for his Hamlin's Wizard oil, built the largest billiard hall in the world on the site of the former opera house. Later he enlarged and turned it into a beer garden, which in turn became Hamlin's theater in 1878, and in 1880, after extensive alterations, was reopened under the former name of the Grand opera house.
The flamboyant announcement of the opening said:
SPECIAL NOTICE
The management beg to present to the public some of its many claims to supremacy in the field it occupies. To begin at the beginning, it is the only theater with painted marble vestibule; the only theater with luxuriously furnished foyer; the only theater with spacious alcove lobby; the only theater with carved-wood grand staircase; the only theater with luxurious velvet carpets; the only theater with latest pattern opera chairs; the only theater with six modern proscenium boxes; the only theater with fashionable gas fixtures.

The attraction for this grand opening was "A Child of the State."
Hooley Buils Another.
After the fire Hooley, the minstrel man, exchanged the site of the Grand for another on Randolph street, and there for many years operated Hooley's theater, now the Powers, remodelled somewhat but essentially the same as it was 50 years ago.
The circus men, Charles E. Kohl and George Middleton, launched the Olympic on its present regime. They had been followers of P. T. Barnum and had started in Chicago as proprietors of dime museums. Its origin as a place of amusement dates back to the early sixties, when Wood's museum occupied part of the site, with Kingsbury Hall, home of a modest stock company venture, at the rear.
Cherbourg—French naval torpedo boats and destroyers of an obsolete type are being sold for prices equivalent to $500 to $1,000. Some of them are being fitted out for use as yachts.
A woman is clever when she makes a man think he knows a great deal more than she does.

The following pallbearers were selected by Mr. Snyder previous to his death: James Matheson, E. C. Hubbard, Sam Mitchell, George Pierce, C. H. Wiswell, and L. W. Swan.

ler, Milwaukee, and Ralph Thomas, Elkhorn, collided. Both cars were badly damaged and the sign post at the park corner was demolished. The occupants escaped without serious injury.
Personals
Mr. and Mrs. Jack Francis, Janesville were here Thursday.
Mr. and Mrs. William Kallenberg,

Mrs. Roy Mahoney, who was a partner in the Hat Box millinery shop with Mrs. Joan Lean, has sold her interest to the latter.

Blues Take on Fast Kenosha High Here Tuesday Night

VISITORS BOAST RECORD OF SIX STRAIGHT WINS

Mott, Cruser, Clark, Meek, Kenosha—Stetson and Hammond.

Coach Reyners' boys from High street go into their eleventh game of the season at 8 p. m. Tuesday night against the fast Kenosha high quintet. Both teams hold victories over Racine and Beloit. Racine forcing Kenosha to an overtime battle.

Kenosha has six straight wins to her credit. Her latest trick was to defeat Sheboygan Saturday, 24 to 11. The Kenosha team excels in passing and defensive play.

The Janesville high squad was put through a hard drill in offensive play in their first practice since losing to University high here last Thursday. "Get into the game from the start" was the command hammered into them by the coach, Johnny Austin, assistant. The team will take the floor with a slightly damaged hand. He got mixed up with a dog Saturday and got slightly the worse of the combat.

LANDIS WANTED TIME TO PLAY ON LINKS

Chicago—Golf was one of the impelling reasons why Kenesaw Mountain Landis recently resigned his federal judgeship. It was learned Tuesday, although a recent lover of the game, the baseball commissioner found that he had no time for the links while exercising his double duty of arbitrating legal and baseball affairs. He found time for only three rounds of golf last year which he decided was not sufficient to keep him in physical and mental trim. The judge plays a tolerable game of golf and a dog named "Buddy" is a canine that has been taught to retrieve lost golf balls.

NEW YORKERS ARE ALL RICH IF YOU LET 'EM TELL IT

One writer has said poverty is a crime; another that it is a disease. I say it is useless. Why be poor? Why kill the wife? Let the laundress do the dirty work. There is absolutely no reason for being poor. Once a person gets the New York idea, nobody can keep him out of the millionaire class. Jimenez, salesmen—all that sort of thing.

The other day I bought a pair of shoes. The young man who waited on me didn't look like a millionaire. In fact, he looked more like a shoe clerk. True, he appeared honest and industrious, but somehow he didn't have the appearance I had always associated with capitalists or industrialists. But I was wrong in thinking him not a millionaire. He was on the same car as I going home. There the young man's financial status became known to me and everyone else in the car. He was talking to a friend, in about the confidential tone of voice usually adopted by auctioneers.

It seems as though the young man had spent a day on the street. A bad day, it transpired; in fact, it sounded awful to me. First the United States Steel had handed him a hefty walloping in the market. Then the stock market had heavily interested him, spouting his own words. I got to believing him and a furtive hand had to be wiped away from my eye. To me it seemed terrible, but the young man himself wasn't very much concerned.

A Real Killing
Yes, it was too late, but last week—ah! last week—he made a killing; and what a killing it was! Yes, but his week's reverses were nothing; a mere flicker. It seemed that his friend also dabbled in stocks in a mild sort of way, and the two became very interesting to two fair young things who were on their way home from work. In fact, I do believe, now that I think of it, that the conversation was largely for their benefit. When the two young men got off one of the girls turned to the other and murmured: "Cuckoo."

"One arm joint is wrote all over the law," said the other.
"You know these birds. One needs them every day. They are millionaires. Sure. They haven't got the money but they have the idea—the New York idea. Believe that you have a thing and it is just as good as having it and maybe somebody will believe you."

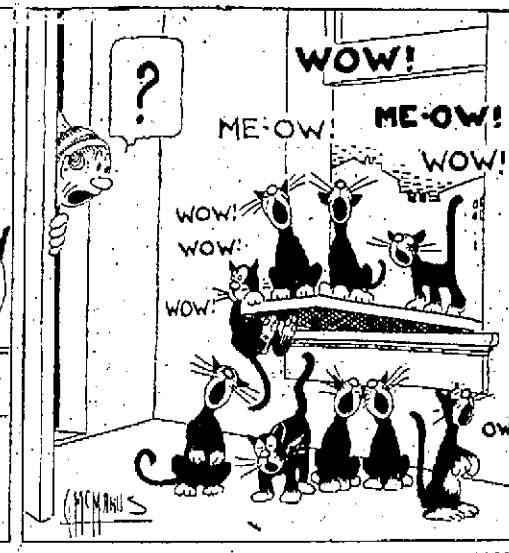

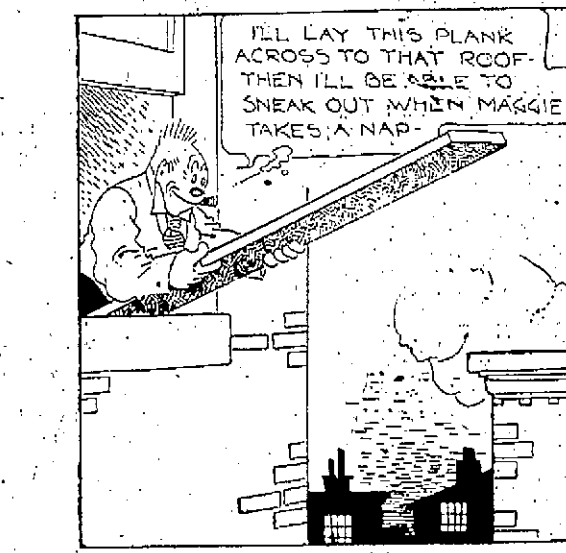

The Female Type
Two young lappers came out of a theater the other afternoon and before they got into the automobile, one said to the chauffeur, reproachfully:

"Meadows, I told you to bring the touring car. I need the fresh air and I detest the closed car on a day like this."

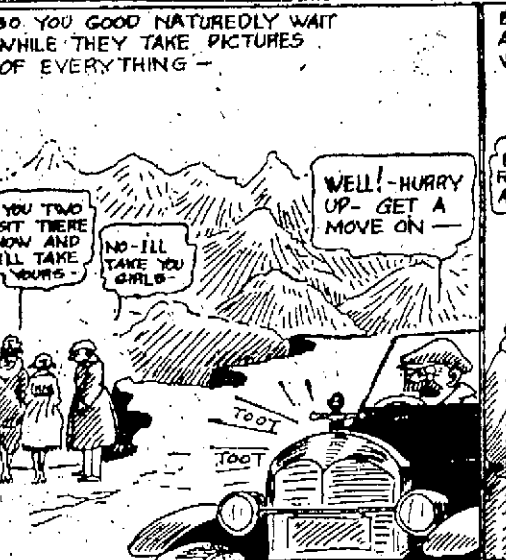

She looked at Meadows very discouragingly and climbed the foresting for the moment that the taxi-cab company's sign was blazoned forth in nine spots. That's the way with these sudden millionaires. They do forget.

Not only has Taylor of Wisconsin lost the lead in individual basketball scoring of the conference to Carney of Illinois, but the next best scorer, Budger, in the last game, is in 34th place. This tells its own story of why Wisconsin is not among the leaders.

Janesville pastors in favor of reviving the Wisconsin blues sky laws will be interested in the plans of the Dismoor Golf club of Chicago. Special facilities to care for the spiritual welfare of church members addicted to playing golf Sunday mornings will be installed. A wireless receiving set will enable the linksman to listen to their favorite music while enjoying a cigarette on the veranda.

Women are coming more and more to the front in athletics. In Wisconsin, the state bowling meet of the fair sex opens Wednesday at Madison. Tuesday night, another game in the Janesville church girls basketball league takes place. Janesville high school girls play base.
